

VOLUNTEERS WANTED

Montreal, September 7 2022 – Want to get involved? The Château Ramezay — Museum and historical site of Montreal is recruiting volunteer guides willing to share their love of history with students and visitors who would like to know more about our heritage.

Anyone interested is invited to the Chateau Ramezay on Monday, September 26th for an information session from 10 am to 2 p.m. Our guides will be on hand to share their enthusiasm with you and to answer all of your questions.

Required profile

You do not need be a historian or even bilingual, as long as you're comfortable with others, love learning and sharing your knowledge with a diverse clientele, a few hours per week. If, in addition, you're interested in the history of Quebec and/or of Montreal, you would be an ideal candidate! Complete training is available. Teamed with an experienced guide, you will learn the ropes of our programs and master the pleasures of guiding, at your own pace.

A Risky Business?!

Yes indeed! By becoming a volunteer at the Chateau, you risk making new friends! Volunteer guides are divided into two associations, the French guides and the English ones, over 100 members in all. Each group organizes continuing training, outings, and various events over the year. Some volunteers have been with the Chateau for over 25 years!

Questions?

Come to the Chateau on Monday, September 26th to meet the members of our dynamic team! They are the best source of information on our volunteer programs. Information is also available on our website under the heading Donations and Volunteering.

About us

*The Château Ramezay – Museum and Historical Site of Montreal is a non-profit organization which safeguards and makes accessible a collection focused primarily on the history of Montréal and Quebec. The Château was the first building in Quebec to be classified an historic monument. It is the oldest private historical museum in the province. The Museum can count on financial assistance from the Government of Quebec, the City of Montréal and the Conseil des arts de Montréal.
