

SPRING BREAK 2023
Break-baking workshop for the whole family! And much more...

Montreal, February 13, 2023 – For the first time since 2020, the Château Ramezay – Historic Site and Museum of Montreal is once again inviting families to get their hands dirty. Take advantage of spring break to share a historical culinary experience with your children with our break-baking workshop!

Churn your butter, then add your starter and flour – your bread is starting to take shape! Next, throw in some sugar that you will have ground yourself and some dried fruit. This is a tasty snack to enjoy with your family! While your bread is baking, take a look at the history of Montreal through our permanent exhibition or discover our temporary exhibitions.

From February 26, 2023 to March 5, 2023 inclusively, the Museum will offer this activity every day continuously from 11:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. No reservations are required, just show up at the Museum!

Play the Museum Curator

The Château invites children of all ages to discover its exhibitions through a new lens. While browsing through the rooms, they will make discoveries and, like our curator, choose their favourite pieces to create their own exhibition on the history of Montreal. Making choices isn't easy, but it's a great way to learn while having fun!

Download and print your activity booklet here before coming or ask for a copy at the Museum's welcome desk upon arrival!

Dress up in 18th-Century Fashion

Visiting the Château with your family is also fun and immersive! During your visit in the vaults, take a break in the family zone where there are many costumes for all ages to put on. Imagine yourself in the 18th-century Château and take a picture in front of New France landscape backdrops!
