

WANTED: ENTHUSIASTIC VOLUNTEERS!

Montréal, April 1st, 2026—Feel like getting involved? The Château Ramezay—Historic Site and Museum of Montréal is recruiting new volunteer guides who'd like to get involved with Montréal's historic past.

Those interested are invited to the Château Ramezay on Tuesday, April 28, 2026, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Our volunteers will be on hand to welcome you, introduce you to the Château and its activities and answer questions regarding expected commitment, training, costumes, etc. It will also be a chance to sign up for the next training session.

Ideal Profile

No need to be a historian or even bilingual! We're looking for people who are sociable, who enjoy learning, and who, for a few hours per week, are willing to share their knowledge with a diverse clientele.

Become a Volunteer Guide. If you're interested in the history of Québec and/or Montréal, you'd be an ideal candidate! Complete training is provided. Paired with experienced guides, you'll learn the ins and outs of guiding and other activities, at your own pace.

A Risky Business?

In becoming a volunteer, you risk only making new friends! In addition to the Friends of the Garden, volunteer guides are grouped into two associations: the French-speaking guides and the English-speaking guides. Together, they total almost 100 members. Each group organizes ongoing training, activities and outings during the year. Some volunteers have been with the Château for 25 years or more.

Questions?

Come and meet our dynamic team on April 28. They're the best source of information on our volunteer programs. Information is also available on our website at
